UW-Madison Center for Integrated Agricultural Systems

Publications Order Form

> Check the blank next to the publications that you would like to receive, or indicate a quantity in the blank.

Research Briefs and other single sheet publications are free; multi-page publications cost $3 each for postage unless noted otherwise. Contact CIAS for costs for five or more multi-page publications. Most publications, including older ones not listed here, are available on the CIAS Web site at http://www.cias.wisc.edu.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>General sustainable agriculture</th>
<th>Organic agriculture</th>
<th>Grazing systems</th>
<th>Cropping systems</th>
<th>Fresh produce production/marketing</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Would you, could you, should you: participatory on-farm research in sust. agriculture (4 pgs, 6/07)</td>
<td>Becoming a certified organic producer (12 pgs, 6/07)</td>
<td>Forage Fescues in the Northern USA (15 pgs, 9/08)</td>
<td>Building Soil Organic Matter with Organic Amendments (13 pgs, 9/02)</td>
<td>Building Soil Organic Matter with Organic Amendments (13 pgs, 9/02)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Overview of Organic Cranberry Production (2 pgs, 8/05)</td>
<td>Organic Agriculture in Wisconsin: 2005 Summary (2 pgs, 2/06)</td>
<td>How does managed grazing affect Wisconsin’s environment? (4 pgs, 9/08)</td>
<td>27 Outwintering dairy cattle: animal health (2/98)</td>
<td>CSA Across the Nation: Findings from the 1999 CSA Survey (19 pgs, 10/03)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Selling certified organic produce to retail produce markets in the Upper Midwest (15 pgs, 1/00)</td>
<td>Overview of Organic Cranberry Production (2 pgs, 8/05)</td>
<td>Custom Raising Dairy Heifers: Expectations and Perspectives of Wisconsin Dairy Producers (6 pgs, 7/08)</td>
<td>25 Ag professionals spreading MIRG (9/98)</td>
<td>*not available on the CIAS website</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Organic Agriculture in Wisconsin: 2005 Summary (2 pgs, 2/06)</td>
<td>Organic Agriculture in Wisconsin: 2005 Status Report (24 pgs, 2/06)</td>
<td>Dairy farmers share heifer raising preferences (11/07)</td>
<td>32 Low-input forage rotation analysis (1/01)</td>
<td>Becoming a certified organic producer (12 pgs, 6/07) $3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Overview of Organic Cranberry Production (2 pgs, 8/05)</td>
<td>Organic Agriculture in Wisconsin: 2005 Status Report (24 pgs, 2/06)</td>
<td>How is cheese from pastured cows unique? (1/07)</td>
<td>47 Annual ryegrass trial shows limits, promise (1/00)</td>
<td>How does managed grazing affect Wisconsin’s environment? (4 pgs, 9/08) $3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Selling certified organic produce to retail produce markets in the Upper Midwest (15 pgs, 1/00)</td>
<td>Organic Agriculture in Wisconsin: 2005 Status Report (24 pgs, 2/06)</td>
<td>Flavor key in selling pasture-based cheese (10/03)</td>
<td>46 Pastured poultry study sees range of issues (12/99)</td>
<td>Custom Raising Dairy Heifers: Expectations and Perspectives of Wisconsin Dairy Producers (6 pgs, 7/08) $3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Would you, could you, should you: participatory on-farm research in sust. agriculture (4 pgs, 6/07)</td>
<td>Organic Agriculture in Wisconsin: 2005 Status Report (24 pgs, 2/06)</td>
<td>Large-scale pastured poultry farming (1/03)</td>
<td>Wisconsin’s Grazing Success: Grazing dairy farms show profit and promise (2 pgs, 2/05)</td>
<td>25 Ag professionals spreading MIRG (9/98)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Organic Agriculture in Wisconsin: 2005 Status Report (24 pgs, 2/06)</td>
<td>Organic Agriculture in Wisconsin: 2005 Status Report (24 pgs, 2/06)</td>
<td>Dairy grazing can provide good return (1/00)</td>
<td>Cheese from Pastured Cows: Comparing taste, texture and color (9 pgs, 12/06) $3</td>
<td>Grazing in the dairy state: Pasture use in the Wisconsin dairy industry, 1993-2003 (17 pgs, 1/06) $3</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

---

*not available on the CIAS website

---

October, 2008
___ Fresh Market Vegetable Resource CD (10/03) $5
___ Integrated Pest Management: An Overview for Market Growers (11 pgs, 12/02) $3
___ Integrated Weed Management for Fresh Market Production (13 pgs, 12/02) $3
___ Scouting vegetables for pests (28 pgs, 6/04) $3

Research Briefs
___ 71 Beneficial insect habitat in an orchard (9/04)
___ 69 Home Grown Wisconsin: Mrktg. fresh produce (2/04)
___ 68 CSA farms: management and income (1/04)
___ 67 CSA farms: national survey results (1/04)
___ 64 Lawn care herbicide and problems (2/03)
___ 62 Fresh market growers-pest mgmt. strategies (12/02)
___ 60 Apple disease control alternatives (2/02)
___ 52 CSA: More for your money than fresh veg. (1/01)
___ 45 Composted manures offer yield and disease resistance benefits (12/99)
___ 41 Managing a CSA farm 2: economics, mrktg. (3/99)
___ 40 Managing a CSA farm 1: prdn., labor, land (3/99)
___ 38 New markets: selling to retail stores (2/99)
___ 32 Farm networks work: a CSA success story (9/98)
___ 21 Community Supported Agriculture (10/96)

Institutional buying of local, sustainable food
___ If you serve it, will they come? Farm-to-school lessons from WI Homegrown Lunch Project (24 pgs, 4/07) $3
___ Farm to college resource packet (8/04)* $3

Research Briefs
___ 74 Farm-to-school program is learning experience (2/07)
___ 55 Dishing up local food on WI campuses (1/01)
___ 39 New markets: selling to colleges (2/99)

Wisconsin School for Beginning Market Growers—see the CIAS Web site for more information

Beginning dairy farmers
___ Nurturing the Next Generation of Wisconsin’s Dairy Farmers (22 pgs, 10/01) $3
___ Dairy farmer career paths New Zealand dairy entry/exit strategies (62 pgs, 5/96)* $3

Research Briefs
___ 58 Starting your own dairy farm (10/01)
___ 56 Starting—and succeeding—as a beginning dairy farmer (2/01)
___ 37 Wisconsin School for Beginning Dairy Farmers (1/99)
___ 34 Sharemilking in Wisconsin (1/99)
___ 33 New Zealand’s dairy career path: could it work in Wisconsin? (9/98)
___ 26 Dairy farmer career paths (2/98)

Wisconsin School for Beginning Dairy and Livestock Farmers—see the CIAS Web site for more information
___ Grass-based dairy seminar 3 CD set $100 + $15 shipping

Specialty crops and value-added enterprises
___ Uncommon fruit crops with sustainability potential (2 pgs, 7/07)
___ Specialty Cheese in Wisconsin: Opportunities and Challenges (34 pgs, 7/05) $3
___ Working with Retail Buyers (11 pgs, 8/04) $3
___ Echinacea as a Tobacco Crop Alternative (5 pgs, 6/99) $3

Research Briefs
___ 72 Valuing labor and improving efficiency on an integrated farm (12/04)
___ 66 Flavor, not health claims, key in marketing pasture-based cheese (10/03)
___ 54 Community kitchens: key elements of success (1/01)
___ 51 Switchgrass production for biomass (1/01)
___ 48 Echinacea as a tobacco crop alternative (1/00)

Food system analysis
___ CIAS Meal Ticket #1 Food and energy: another way to count calories (4" by 11" card, 1999)*
___ CIAS Meal Ticket #2 Your consumer food dollar: how does it carve up? (4" by 11" card, 1999)*
___ The power eater’s guide to organic and sustainable food (4" by 11" card, 1999)*
___ Price Tags/Cost Tags (4" by 11" card, 2000) True costs of conventionally raised and marketed food:
___ chicken tomatoes
___ apples eggs
___ hamburger milk and dairy ___ water sweet corn
___ soda pop strawberries
___ beer potatoes
___ coffee
___ Regional food systems research: needs, priorities, and recommendations (27 pgs, 10/95) $3

Please send the materials marked above to Name ________________________________________________________________
Affiliation __________________________________________________________________________________________
Address __________________________________________ City __________ State ____ Zip ______
E-mail __________________________________________________________________________________________

___ Please put me on the list to receive Research Briefs in the mail.
___ Please notify me via e-mail when new Research Briefs are posted on the CIAS web site. (Provide e-mail address above.)

Please mail this form (with payment, if required, payable to UW Madison-CIAS) to UW-Madison CIAS, 1535 Observatory Drive, Madison, WI 53706; or call (608) 262-5200, fax (608) 265-3020 or e-mail your requests to rmcnair@wisc.edu